NEW ENGLAND EDITORS' LEAVE.
The party of New England Editors who arrived Thursday and who have been sight seeing in this locality for the last two days, left last night on the Seaboard Air Line vestibuled car special, Wagner, for their objective point being Southern Pines, N. C.

The party is composed of representatives of the leading New England newspapers, and their Southern tour, which is one taken annually, is for the purpose of combining business with pleasure.

Mr. E. F. King, of Boston, is in charge, and on their trip South they will write up the most enterprising towns for the benefit of their New England readers. From the standpoint of development, and advertisement, these tours are of pecuniary advantage to Southern territory. The car in which they are traveling is a model of elegance and luxury.

It has not been decided where they will go after leaving Southern Pines. They will probably stop there two or three days, as most of the party have been to this point, and those who have not been there have heard of it through the Seaboard's advertising matter, that constantly distributing an enormous quantity of reading matter among New Englanders annually. It is expected that the party will spend a week or ten days at some of the Seaboard's best known resorts.

PORTSMOUTH'S ORIGINAL CHAR-TER.
Mr. W. A. Thorpe, of the Middle Temple, London, has prepared a copy of the original charter granted by King Edward II. to the town of Portsmouth, England, February 12, 1333. The original charter is in Latin and is accompanied by a translation. With this photograph was the following letter:

Mr. Thorpe requests you to accept and hang in your City Hall a (reduced one-ninth original) photograph of the earliest extant charter granted by Edward II. February 12, 1333, to your patri-mony English town.

DIFFICULT SURGICAL OPERATION.
Yesterday afternoon Mr. John C. Parkinson, of this city, went over to St. Vincent's Hospital to have a surgical operation performed upon him at 5:30 o'clock. Mr. Parkinson has for a long time been suffering from a tumor, which seems to have fastened itself on his breast bone, and it is for the purpose of having it removed that he submitted to the knife of the surgeon. He says he has been led to believe that after the tumor is removed that it will be necessary to chop off a part of the breast bone. Yet, notwithstanding this, he did not appear to be nervous, but took the matter philosophically.
